5. Cross check the deadline, read the essay topic and prepare your essay

Note: When you apply for a scholarship, the scholarships teams are going to look for these two criteria in your essay when shortlisting candidates:

20% overall presentation and format of the essay -> Include your name, essay topic and QS fair you have attended (example QS World Grad School Tour- London- 2017). These words will not count towards the essay's word limit.

80 % relevance and quality of the content -> Upload only relevant to the topic essays. CV/ Resume, Statement of Purpose and/ or Motivation Letter will NOT be evaluated.

QS encourage candidates coming from diverse backgrounds, to apply for our scholarships, regardless of the country of origin or the business school or university they have been admitted to.

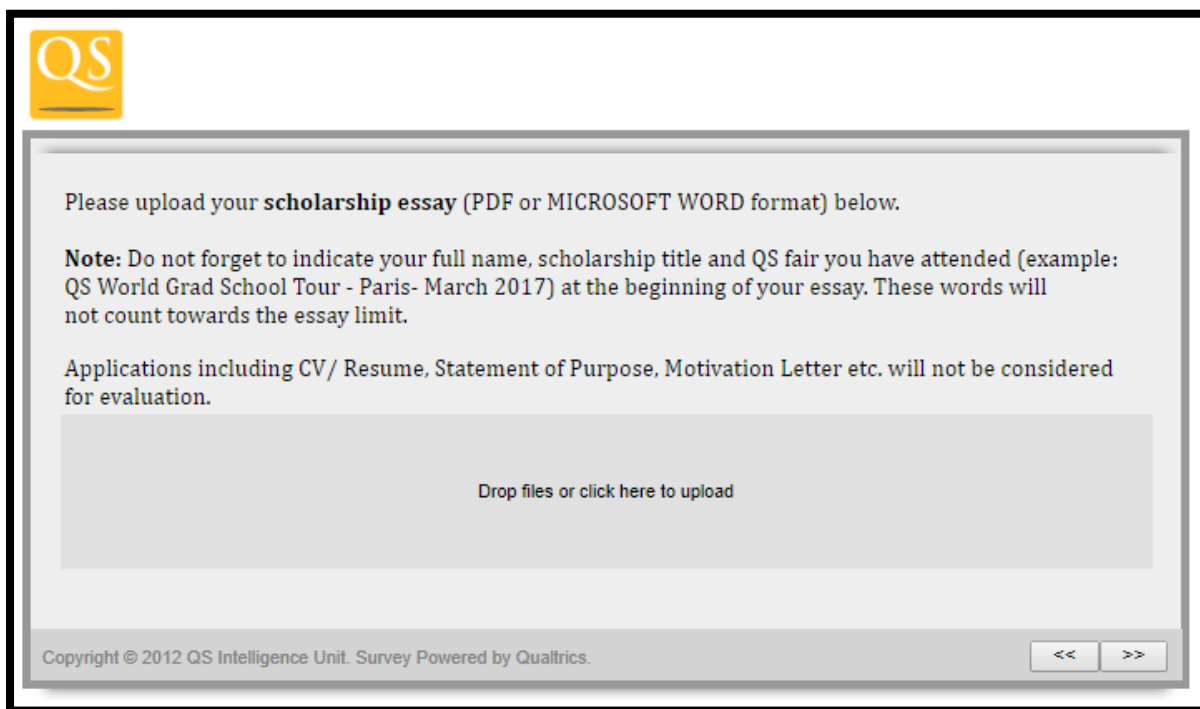

The image shows a screenshot of a scholarship application form. At the top left is the QS logo. The main content area is titled 'CRITERIA:' and contains the following text: 'To be eligible to apply for this scholarship applicants must have attended a QS World Grad School Tour and have completed the QS Applicant Survey.' Below this is a 'Note:' stating that applicants should indicate their full name, scholarship title, and QS fair at the beginning of their essay. Further down, it lists 'Value: US$10,000' and 'Recipients: 1'. The 'Essay topic:' is described as 'Describe how you plan to build on your academic achievement to date to a) maximise the benefits that your imminent postgraduate program can offer you and b) once you have the postgraduate qualification, apply it in your place of work to general social, scientific or economic advantage.' At the bottom, it specifies 'Word Limit: max. 500 words' and 'Deadline: 30th April 2018'. A footer contains the copyright notice 'Copyright © 2012 QS Intelligence Unit. Survey Powered by Qualtrics.' and two navigation arrows.

6. Upload your essay

Note: Applications to more than one scholarships are accepted, if the relevant essay for each scholarship has been submitted. You can apply for both QS Leadership and QS Academic Excellence Scholarships but need to upload the relevant essays. Bear in mind, if you have attended QS World Grad School Tour event you can NOT apply for MBA scholarships, and vice-versa.

The screenshot shows a web interface for uploading a scholarship essay. At the top left is the QS logo. The main text reads: "Please upload your scholarship essay (PDF or MICROSOFT WORD format) below." Below this is a Note: "Do not forget to indicate your full name, scholarship title and QS fair you have attended (example: QS World Grad School Tour - Paris- March 2017) at the beginning of your essay. These words will not count towards the essay limit." Another note states: "Applications including CV/ Resume, Statement of Purpose, Motivation Letter etc. will not be considered for evaluation." A large grey box contains the text "Drop files or click here to upload". At the bottom left, it says "Copyright © 2012 QS Intelligence Unit. Survey Powered by Qualtrics." and at the bottom right, there are navigation arrows "<<" and ">>".

7. Essay submission notification message

Note: If you see the message below, your application has been successfully submitted and it is stored in our system. There is no reference number, confirmation email sent after this message.

If you do NOT see this notification, please get in touch with Scholarships team at: scholarships@qs.com

The screenshot shows a confirmation message for a scholarship application. At the top left is the QS logo. The message is enclosed in a yellow-bordered box and reads: "Congratulations! You have successfully applied for this scholarship. Use this message as a confirmation of application receipt." Below this is a Note: "The QS Scholarship finalists will be contacted by QS Scholarships Team 2-3 weeks after the scholarships deadline. If you do not hear personally from us, it is unlikely that you have been selected as the winner of a QS scholarship. Due to the high volume of applications the QS Scholarship Team cannot provide application feedback to all enquiries." At the bottom of the box, it says: "For assistance please contact us at: scholarships@qs.com Thank you and good luck with your application!" At the bottom left of the entire message box, it says "Copyright © 2012 QS Intelligence Unit. Survey Powered by Qualtrics."
